New Blocks Released at Saltwater Coast

Saltwater Coast, located in Point Cook, has announced the latest Northview Release which offers 13 new lots within its prime development.

The Northview Release offers homebuyers the opportunity to purchase exclusive allotments at Saltwater Coast, ranging in size from 429sqm to 688sqm with prices starting at $274,000.

The newly released allotments are positioned a short walk from the planned state-of-the-art Lifestyle Centre and only a stone throw away from the landscaped wetland retreat.

Executive General Manager, Residential Communities, Evian Delfabbro said that she expected the Northview Release to be received well by homebuyers.

“The Northview Release at Saltwater Coast offers homebuyers an opportunity to purchase prime land, close to the city, in a community environment.

“With its enviable coastal setting, community facilities and quality housing, homebuyers recognise the fantastic lifestyle and investment opportunity Saltwater Coast presents.”

Located only 20 kilometres from Melbourne’s CBD, Saltwater Coast will comprise around 2,500 homes and will feature approximately 52 hectares of open space, landscaped parklands and wetlands to complement its natural setting.

The development will set a new benchmark for Point Cook, boasting the latest sporting and recreation facilities. The residents-only Saltwater Coast Lifestyle Centre will include a state-of-the-art gymnasium, indoor heated 25 metre lap pool, outdoor resort pool, children’s pool, two tennis courts, barbeques, café and a 100 seat function room with city skyline views.

Each home will be located within 400 metres of a park and design guidelines are in place to ensure that each home reflects contemporary architectural quality.

For more information on purchasing allotments at Saltwater Coast, visit Saltwater Coast Land Sales & Information Centre at Corner City Bay Drive & Saltwater Promenade, Point Cook, Victoria. The centre is open from 11am until 5pm, 7 days. Melway Map 208 F-11. www.saltwatercoast.com.au
