SALTWATER COAST RESIDENTS GATHER TO MEET THEIR NEIGHBOURS

FKP has hosted a 'meet your neighbours' event at its new masterplanned community Saltwater Coast at Point Cook in Melbourne.

Residents who purchased in the bayside community were invited to attend and meet the people that will become part of their new lifestyle.

In excess of 200 attended the day, which was organised by FKP for its residents to get to know one another and see the site as the first homes begin to take shape.

Executive General Manager Evian Delfabbro said there was entertainment and food provided for the residents as a 'sneak peak' at what life will be like in the masterplanned community.

"I was pleased we were able to do this for purchasers and delighted by their response. It's a very exciting time for many, with the first settlements having now been made and homes being constructed against the backdrop of Port Phillip Bay and Melbourne's CBD," Ms Delfabbro said.

"Saltwater Coast is not just about creating homes it is about creating a family community.

"The event was also put on as a thank you to purchasers for supporting this very successful project, which continues to attract strong interest from the public."

Saltwater Coast is located just 20km from the CBD and includes approximately 50 hectares of open space, including landscaped wetlands and parks,

The Lifestyle Centre will offer a gym, spa, tennis courts, BBQ facilities, a café and indoor and outdoor pools. The Centre will also include function rooms featuring breathtaking views of the bay and the city skyline.

Those interested should visit the Saltwater Coast website www.saltwatercoast.com.au where you can view the new Masterplan DVD and animation. You can also contact 1300 357 000, or visit the Saltwater Coast Land Sales & Information Centre at 395 Point Cook Road, Point Cook.
